MEMORANDUM.

HIS MAJESTY THE KING has been graciously pleased to accept the voluntary offer made by the under mentioned Militia Battalion to serve at a station outside the United Kingdom, viz.:—
3rd Battalion the Northamptonshire Regiment.

THE VICTORIA CROSS.

(Extract from the London Gazette of the 18th April, 1902.)War Office, April 18, 1902.

The King has been graciously pleased to signify His intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross on the under-mentioned Non-Commissioned Officer, whose claims have been submitted for His Majesty's approval, for his conspicuous bravery in South Africa, as stated against his name:—

Corps.	Name.	Act of Courage for which recommended.
South African Constabulary	Serjeant James Rogers	On the 15th June, 1901, during a skirmish near Thaba Nchu, a party of the rearguard of Captain Sitwell's column, consisting of Lieutenant F. Dickinson, Serjeant James Rogers, and 8 men of the South African Constabulary, was suddenly attacked by about 60 Boers. Lieutenant Dickinson's horse having been shot, that Officer was compelled to follow his men on foot. Serjeant Rogers seeing this, rode back, firing as he did so, took Lieutenant Dickinson up behind him, and carried him for half-a-mile on his horse. The Serjeant then returned to within 400 yards of the enemy, and carried away, one after the other, two men who had lost their horses, after which he caught the horses of two other men, and helped the men to mount. All this was done under a very heavy rifle fire. The Boers were near enough to Serjeant Rogers to call upon him to surrender; his only answer was to continue firing.

This decoration will be awarded to the winner of a competition framed by the commanding officer with a view to test all-round shooting, and open to all of above ranks who are marksmen.

4. Best shot of the corporals and privates in the regiment or battalion.—A badge of crossed rifles and star, surrounded by a scroll of bay leaves, in gold, to be awarded to the winner of a competition open to the four best marksmen from each squadron, and the three best marksmen from each company, respectively. Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, C. R. Low, Esq., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Superintendent Miss K. Bartlett, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 180 girls, and the desire of the Committee is to maintain the full complement.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average three candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-Commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.
